With consistent staffing, the young people are able to build relationships based on mutual respect and trust. Young people all have a keyworker who will maintain a comprehensive placement plan and risk management plan for each young person in the home.

Young people are encouraged to contribute to their homes décor, activities, menus and routines.

Young people are aware of their right to comment or complain about their experience, an appointed Advocate for the home visits the site.

Multi-disciplinary working is at the center of planning successful care for all young people, the staff at Dilston College will work together with all agencies relating to each young person.

The young people who are looked after at Dilston College are cared for within an ethos in which they are treated with unconditional positive regard, where they are aware of their rights and responsibilities and where there is an expectation that they will behave in ways, which are acceptable and conducive to living harmoniously with other people. Young people have clear boundaries and expectations that are positively reinforced.

Management of Restraint and Physical Intervention

All staff at Dilston college are trained in the use of CPI Safety Intervention which is the use of de-escalation strategies and techniques to manage behaviors that challenge — including verbal and physical aggression. Physical intervention is used as a last resort when necessary to manage physical aggression towards staff or peers, to prevent severe damage to property, to prevent injury or to keep a young person or other people safe. Staff are trained annually with intermittent training on how to manage behaviors that challenge from young people. Physical intervention is rarely used in the residential setting.
