

Great school news of the week.

NEWSLETTER

Primary:

This week the primary class had a lovely week, they had their Christmas dinner on Wednesday and on Thursday they took a trip to Brockholes Nature Reserve.

RR1 – Post 16

This week has been a great last week before Christmas!! All pupils have been on their end of term rewards trip to the Chill Factore in Manchester, which was a blast! We aren't sure who had more fun the students or staff. Also, we had our school Christmas dinner Thursday and this was so lovely to get everyone together in the dining hall pulling crackers and telling cheesy jokes.

We have had 2 pupils take on their first abseil challenge they both abseiled 100ft down a cliff in North Wales and a 90ft abseil from a bridge at Devils Gorge.

We have also taken some pupil-made mince pies over to the local senior's care home this week.

Maths challenge:

You throw a snowball 4 meters

If you throw it 3 times

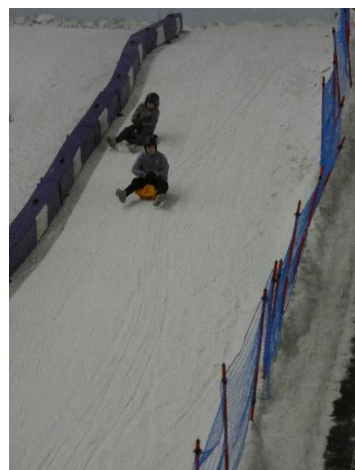

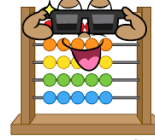

How many meters have you thrown it?

Answer:

English challenge:

I S M T C A R H S

How many words can you make from the letters above?

DID YOU KNOW?

Teachers' fun fact:

Rudolph was almost named Rollo or Reginald and his crew also had lots of other names. They've previously been called Flossie, Glossie, Racer, Pacer, Scratcher, Feckless, Ready, Steady and Fireball.

Student Fun Fact:

In Japan, it is a tradition to eat fast-food chicken on Christmas day!

World news this week:

A Somerset shop that sells Christmas decorations all year round has been named as one of the best Christmas shops in the UK by a national newspaper.

Key info:

We return to school on the 6th of January.