

Home Tree School – End of Term Celebration Day

On the last day of term, staff and young people took part in many activities to celebrate a successful start to the academic year. It was evident that the most popular activities for all was the pass the parcel (congratulations, Tommy), whole school Christmas music quiz and Mario Kart competition (yes, Lee won every round).

