My chocolate bar is awesome.
 My chocolate bar is, Mark
 now and fantastic.
 My gold chocolate bar smells nice and delicious. My chocolate bar is dark brown and white. When my chocolate bar is not, it melts and is runny and drippy.

Here we have some work produced by two of our year 6 students. One showing their knowledge in Maths and the other demonstrating their writing independent writing skills. I'm sure you will agree with us that this is fantastic. Well done both of you!

This is a drawing done by one of our talented Pathway 2 students. They have drawn all of their favourite characters they have created over time, and formulated an epic Good. Vs Evil battle scene. How brilliant is this?!

Year 10 and Year 11 PCSO Visit on Consent

Pupils in Year 10, 11 and Sixth Form participated in an assembly about Consent. Pupils were able to display the knowledge they have learnt about in previous lessons, as well as answering the questions asked.

Chinese New Year

Pupils have had the opportunity to participate in Chinese New Year craft activities making egg box dragons and slime. Additionally, the intervention room has been decorated in honour of the celebration.
