

Enterprise Day at Wing College!

Students from Wing College recently took part in 'Enterprise Day', a day designed to provide students with work experience which has been of particular benefit during recent times where placements have been scarce due to restrictions.

