

Policy for Relationships & Sex Education

Cambian Hartlepool School

Policy Author / Reviewer	PaulBarnfather
Approval Date	23-09-2024
Next Review Date	23-09-2025
Version No	2
Policy Level	Local
Staff Groups Affected	All Staff

Contents

1.	Monitoring & Review.....	1
2.	Purpose	2
3.	Aims	2
4.	Statutory Requirements	3
	Primary
	Secondary
5.	Policy Development	3
6.	Definition	3
7.	Curriculum	3
8.	Delivery of RSE	4
	Secondary
	Safeguarding	4
	Confidentiality	5
9.	Roles and Responsibilities	5
10.	Parents' Right to Withdraw	5
	Secondary
11.	Training	6
12.	Monitoring Arrangements	6
13.	Appendix 1: Curriculum Overview	7
14.	Appendix 3: By the end of secondary school pupils should know	11
15.	Appendix 4: Parent Form: Withdrawal from Sex Education within RSE.....	15

1. Monitoring & Review

The Policy Author will undertake a formal review of this policy for the purpose of monitoring and of the efficiency with which the related duties have been discharged, by no later one year from the date of approval shown above, or earlier if significant changes to the systems and arrangements take place, or if legislation, regulatory requirements or best practice guidelines so require.

Signed:

Paul Barnfather
Head Teacher
September 2021

2. Purpose

The purpose of a whole school Relationships and Sex Education policy is to:

- Explain the definition, aims and objectives of RSE.
- Describe what we teach and the approaches we use.

This policy helps ensure that the whole school community (pupils, parents/carers, staff, and governors) have a shared understanding of this important area of the curriculum. It is accessible to all stakeholders on the school website or by request.

As a school which values personal development in our children and young people, we ensure our RSE is up to date and regularly evaluated.

This is a working document which provides guidance and information on all aspects of RSE and aims to provide a secure framework within which staff can work.

The term Relationships and Sex Education, RSE, is used in this policy rather than Sex Education. This is to stress that our approach goes beyond provision of biological information to also focus on clarifying attitudes and values, and developing self-esteem and the skills to manage relationships.

3. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at our school are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare students for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

The aims above are in line with our school Ethos. These are the core values that underpin a future where our students are fully included and respected in society: SelfGrowth, Patience, Inclusion, Respect, Interconnected and Trustworthiness.

4. Statutory Requirements

In secondary, we must provide RSE to all pupils as per the Children and Social work act 2017.

In teaching RSE, we must have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

5. Policy Development

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, pupils and parents/carers. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

1. Review – a member of staff or working group pulled together all relevant information including relevant national and local guidance
2. Staff Consultation – all school staff were given the opportunity to look at the policy and make recommendations
3. Parent/Stakeholder Consultation – parents/carers and any interested parties were invited to attend a meeting about the policy
4. Student Consultation – we investigated what exactly students want from their RSE
5. Ratification – once amendments were made, the policy was shared with governors and ratified

6. Definition

RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of students, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.

RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.

RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

7. Curriculum

Our curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 but we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents/carers, students and staff, considering the age, needs and feelings of students. If students ask questions outside the scope of this policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

Primary sex education will focus on:

- Preparing boys and girls for the changes that adolescence brings
- How a baby is conceived and born

8. Delivery of RSE

RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum. Biological aspects of RSE are taught within the science curriculum, such as:

- The Reproductive System – Male and Female
- The Menstrual Cycle
- Contraception – hormonal and non-hormonal
- Sexually Transmitted Infections (e.g., HIV/AIDS)

Students will also receive stand-alone sex education sessions delivered by a trained health professional.

RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds including: Families²

- Respectful relationships, including friendships
- Online and media
- Being safe
- Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures) along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

Safeguarding

Some issues may result in children and young people making disclosures which will be addressed in line with the school safeguarding policy and procedures.

RSE plays a very important part in fulfilling the statutory duties all schools have to meet. RSE helps children understand the difference between safe and abusive relationships and equips them with the skills to get help if they need it.

Hartlepool School ensures these requirements are met through; staff training and awareness, daily support in school to pupils, parents/carers and staff, and liaison with external agencies.

Confidentiality

Staff will follow school's policy with regard to confidentiality. Pupils should also be made aware of the boundaries of confidentiality should they choose to make a disclosure to a member of staff.

A member of staff cannot promise confidentiality if concerns exist.

9. Roles and Responsibilities

The governing board will approve the RSE policy, and hold the Principal to account for its implementation.

The Head of Education is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw students from non-statutory components of RSE.

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE.

Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the Head of Education.

Students are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity. This response is in line with our core values of maintaining a positive attitude, respect for others at all times and displaying high levels of commitment.

10. Parents' Right to Withdraw

Parents/carers have the right to withdraw their children from the [nonstatutory/nonscience] components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found provided adhering to this policy and addressed to the Head teacher.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the student's educational record. The Head of Education will discuss the request with parents/carers and take appropriate action.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

11. Training

Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE and meet on a regular basis with the PSHE Coordinator during accountability meetings.

The Head of Education and PSHE Co-ordinator will also invite visiting speakers and support agencies in to school, such as sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

12. Monitoring Arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by the Head of Curriculum and PSHE Co-ordinator through the Quality Assurance programme of learning walks, book scrutiny, lesson observations and student voice via the student council and questionnaires.

Students' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers through discussion and formative assessment and summative assessment.

This policy will be reviewed every two years. At every review, the policy will be approved by the governing body.

13. Appendix 1: Curriculum Overview

14. Appendix 2: By the end of primary school pupils should know

Topic	Pupils Should Know
Families and People who care about me	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> That families are important for children growing up because they can give love, security and stability <input type="checkbox"/> The characteristics of healthy family life, commitment to each other, including in times of difficulty, protection and care for children and other family members, the importance of spending time together and sharing each other's lives <input type="checkbox"/> That others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care <input type="checkbox"/> That stable, caring relationships, which may be of different types, are at the heart of happy families, and are important for children's security as they grow up <input type="checkbox"/> That marriage represents a formal and legally recognised commitment of two people to each other which is intended to be lifelong <input type="checkbox"/> How to recognise if family relationships are making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and how to seek help or advice from others if needed
Caring Friendships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> How important friendships are in making us feel happy and secure, and how people choose and make friends <input type="checkbox"/> The characteristics of friendships, including mutual respect, truthfulness, trustworthiness, loyalty, kindness, generosity, trust, sharing interests and experiences and support with problems and difficulties <input type="checkbox"/> That healthy friendships are positive and welcoming towards others, and do not make others feel lonely or excluded <input type="checkbox"/> That most friendships have ups and downs, and that these can often be worked through so that the friendship is repaired or even strengthened, and that resorting to violence is never right <input type="checkbox"/> How to recognise who to trust and who not to trust, how to judge when a friendship is making them feel unhappy or uncomfortable, managing conflict, how to manage these situations and how to seek help or advice from others, if needed

Respectful Relationships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ The importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them (for example, physically, in character, personality or backgrounds), or make different choices or have different preferences or beliefs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ Practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships □ The conventions of courtesy and manners □ The importance of self-respect and how this links to their own happiness □ That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority
---------------------------------	--

Topic	Pupils Should Know
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ About different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders (primarily reporting bullying to an adult) and how to get help □ What a stereotype is, and how stereotypes can be unfair, negative or destructive □ The importance of permission-seeking and giving in relationships with friends, peers and adults
Online Relationships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ That people sometimes behave differently online, including by pretending to be someone they are not □ That the same principles apply to online relationships as to face-to face relationships, including the importance of respect for others online including when we are anonymous

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❑ The rules and principles for keeping safe online, how to recognise risks, harmful content and contact, and how to report them ❑ How to critically consider their online friendships and sources of information including awareness of the risks associated with people they have never met ❑ How information and data is shared and used online
Being Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❑ What sorts of boundaries are appropriate in friendships with peers and others (including in a digital context) ❑ About the concept of privacy and the implications of it for both children and adults; including that it is not always right to keep secrets if they relate to being safe ❑ That each person’s body belongs to them, and the differences between appropriate and inappropriate or unsafe physical, and other, contact ❑ How to respond safely and appropriately to adults they may encounter (in all contexts, including online) whom they do not know ❑ How to recognise and report feelings of being unsafe or feeling bad about any adult ❑ How to ask for advice or help for themselves or others, and to keep trying until they are heard ❑ How to report concerns or abuse, and the vocabulary and confidence needed to do so ❑ Where to get advice e.g. family, school and/or other sources

15. Appendix 3: By the end of secondary school pupils should know

Topic	Pupils Should Know
-------	--------------------

Families	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ That there are different types of committed, stable relationships □ How these relationships might contribute to human happiness and their importance for bringing up children □ What marriage is, including their legal status e.g. that marriage carries legal rights and protections not available to couples who are cohabiting or who have married, for example, in an unregistered religious ceremony □ Why marriage is an important relationship choice for many couples and why it must be freely entered into □ The characteristics and legal status of other types of long-term relationships □ The roles and responsibilities of parents with respect to raising of children, including the characteristics of successful parenting □ How to: determine whether other children, adults or sources of information are trustworthy: judge when a family, friend, intimate or other relationship is unsafe (and to recognise this in others' relationships); and, how to seek help or advice, including reporting concerns about others, if needed
Respectful Relationships (including friendships)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ The characteristics of positive and healthy friendships (in all contexts, including online) including: trust, respect, honesty, kindness, generosity, boundaries, privacy, consent and the management of conflict, reconciliation and ending relationships. □ This includes different (non-sexual) types of relationship □ Practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships How stereotypes, in particular stereotypes based on sex, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation or disability, can cause damage (e.g. how they might normalise non-consensual behaviour or encourage prejudice) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including people in positions of authority and due tolerance of other people's beliefs □ About different types of bullying (including cyberbullying), the impact of bullying, responsibilities of bystanders to report bullying and how and where to get help □ That some types of behaviour within relationships are criminal, including violent behaviour and coercive control

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ What constitutes sexual harassment and sexual violence and why these are always unacceptable □ The legal rights and responsibilities regarding equality (particularly with reference to the protected characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010) and that everyone is unique and equal
--	---

Online and Media	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ Their rights, responsibilities and opportunities online, including that the same expectations of behaviour apply in all contexts, including online □ About online risks, including that any material someone provides to another has the potential to be shared online and the difficulty of removing potentially compromising material placed online □ Not to provide material to others that they would not want shared further and not to share personal material which is sent to them □ What to do and where to get support to report material or manage issues online □ The impact of viewing harmful content □ That specifically sexually explicit material e.g. pornography presents a distorted picture of sexual behaviours, can damage the way people see themselves in relation to others and negatively affect how they behave towards sexual partners □ That sharing and viewing indecent images of children (including those created by children) is a criminal offence which carries severe penalties including jail □ How information and data is generated, collected, shared and used online
-------------------------	--

Topic	Pupils Should Know
--------------	---------------------------

Being Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ The concepts of, and laws relating to, sexual consent, sexual exploitation, abuse, grooming, coercion, harassment, rape, domestic abuse, forced marriage, honour-based violence and FGM, and how these can affect current and future relationships □ How people can actively communicate and recognise consent from others, including sexual consent, and how and when consent can be withdrawn (in all contexts, including online)
Intimate and Sexual Relationships, including Sexual Health	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ How to recognise the characteristics and positive aspects of healthy one-to-one intimate relationships, which include mutual respect, consent, loyalty, trust, shared interests and outlook, sex and friendship □ That all aspects of health can be affected by choices they make in sex and relationships, positively or negatively, e.g. physical, emotional, mental, sexual and reproductive health and wellbeing □ The facts about reproductive health, including fertility and the potential impact of lifestyle on fertility for men and women □ That there are a range of strategies for identifying and managing sexual pressure, including understanding peer pressure, resisting pressure and not pressurising others □ That they have a choice to delay sex or to enjoy intimacy without sex □ The facts about the full range of contraceptive choices, efficacy and options available □ The facts around pregnancy including miscarriage

Topic	Pupils Should Know
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ That there are choices in relation to pregnancy (with medically and legally accurate, impartial information on all options, including keeping the baby, adoption, abortion and where to get further help) □ How the different sexually transmitted infections (STIs), including HIV/AIDs, are transmitted, how risk can be reduced through safer sex (including through condom use) and the importance of and facts about testing

- About the prevalence of some STIs, the impact they can have on those who contract them and key facts about treatment
- How the use of alcohol and drugs can lead to risky sexual behaviour
- How to get further advice, including how and where to access confidential sexual and reproductive health advice and treatment

16. Appendix 4: Parent Form: Withdrawal from Sex Education within RSE

To be completed by Parents/Carers
Name of Child		Class
Name of Parent		Date
Reason for withdrawing from sex education within relationships and sex education
Any other information you would like the school to consider
Parent Signature
Parent Print Name
Date

To be completed by the School

Agreed actions from discussion with parents
Teacher Signature

Teacher Print Name
Date

