LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Student A is now working in the café where she completed her work experience.

Student B is now attending College, studying Hospitality.

Student C has enrolled in a Uniformed Service course at college.

Student D was tutored at home, and went on to successfully complete all her exams at school.

Student E moved away from the local area three weeks before the exams started. However, she showed real dedication to her studies, by travelling back to the school on a daily basis to sit her exams.
