

Hill House School

Outcomes 2024

Awards

A total of 68 OCR Life and Living Skills Awards - Entry Level One were achieved by the 18 students that took part

5 x Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Awards

14 x John Muir Awards

Certificates of Achievement

6 x New Forest Fruit Farm work experience

IEP's Achieved

29 x IEP Targets Literacy

29 x IEP Targets Numeracy

18 x Targets Land Based Science

11 x Targets 'One Planet Living'

11 x Targets Thematic Learning

Work Experience

- Student A completed work experience at the local pub (The Red Lion), where he was awarded 'Employee of the Month' for his hard work and effort.
- 5 students worked at Furzey Gardens Horticulture, learning skills in a new environment that contributed towards their Duke of Edinburgh Awards.
- 8 students enjoyed their work experience with young children at Northfields Nursery.
- 18 students completed work experience at Let's Eat Café, meeting and serving customers.

Personal Achievements

- Expedition Captain Award! Inspiringly leading the Duke of Edinburgh expeditions with enthusiasm and curiosity.
- Participating in college activities to help prepare for sixth form.
- Starting to build relationships in college and participating in all work experience.
- Going out and about and having a haircut at the barbers.
- Working hard on resilience and building positive relationships with the chickens.
- Working hard on communication skills - starting to use the Talk Pad more often and continuing to learn new symbols.
- Working on the discovery of colourful semantics to support with communication.
- Bringing music and enthusiastic energy to everything he does and positively branching out into the community.
- Showing continuous patience and resilience throughout the term. Bringing positivity and courage to all new situations he has encountered.
- Growth in friendship skills through respectful, enjoyable and positive interactions with peers.
- Impressively increasing self-expression and confidence to communicate with friends and family. Demonstrating independence in using the Talk Pad and seeking help when needed.
- Demonstrating an increased independence at home organising her wardrobe and her bedroom. Gaining confidence to talk about her interests with others which has helped to increase self-esteem.
- Showing great resilience with curiosity and an open mind, especially when out and about visiting Exbury Gardens, Moors Valley and Portsmouth Oceanarium.
- In Discovery, exploring and trying lots of new activities and exploring new hobbies with a smile on her face.
- Being helpful in Occupational Therapy and Land Science sessions.
- Displaying maturity and resilience working with new staff in a new environment.
- Discovering much more of the natural environment whilst participating with his John Muir Award.

Looking to the Future

- Students S and T have continued education (19-25) and made a successful transition to Priors Court, Thatcham.
- Student K successfully moved into adult supported living.